

Tawna Knight, CPCS
CVO Director
HealthStreamCVO

Tawna Knight began her career as an MSP in 1992 and has managed and directed medical staff, credentialing, provider enrollment and database management services in independent and multihospital systems, delegated credentialing, and independent and system credentials verification organizations.

She is the CVO Director for HealthStream out of San Diego, California. She is a professional Certified Provider Credentialing Specialist who is passionate about coaching, mentoring, managing change, and the endless opportunities of process improvement.

She is a past president of the Idaho Association of Medical Staff Services, served on several NAMSS Committees and has spoken at numerous state and national conferences.